

Our Principal Object

To promote and assist the development of a viable and self-sustaining space sector in Australia that includes

- corporations
- small and medium enterprises and
- research and educational organisations

as an essential component of Australia's involvement in space.

Current Highlights

- 100 financial members
- Converted to national incorporation in August 2016
- Host of International Astronautical Congress 2017
- White Paper 'Advancing Australia in Space' published in March 2017

SIAA Board

- Michael Davis – Chair
- Jeff Kasparian – Deputy Chair
- Naomi Mathers – Deputy Chair
- David Ball – Treasurer
- Peter Nikoloff – Secretary
- Hon. Chris Schacht
- Rod Drury

SIAA Advisory Council

15 members

Chaired by Dr Phil Crosby of the CSIRO

Provides high level advice to the SIAA Board on a range of space industry issues.

SIAA Membership

- Individuals – $110
- Large Corporates/Public Sector - $550
- Small Corporates - $220
- Non-profits (universities) - $220
- Young Professionals – free for first year

INTERNATIONAL ASTRONAUTICAL CONGRESS 2017

ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA - 25-29 SEPTEMBER 2017

Unlocking imagination, fostering innovation and strengthening security.

What is it all about?

The world's biggest and most important multi-disciplinary space meeting, held annually since 1950.

3,500 - 4,000 delegates anticipated:

- 10-15% from Australia, 85-90% international
- Heads of the world's major space agencies
- 20-30 astronauts
- Senior space industry executives
- Many tertiary level students and young professionals

Plenary Sessions

- Heads of Agency (Monday)
- Host Plenary - The Space Industry's Economic and Social Impact (Monday)
- Space Traffic Management – Global Challenge to Protect (Tuesday)
- 50 Ways to Leave Your Earth (Tuesday)
- Next Generation Plenary – Innovative Methods for Assured and Secure Access to Space Resources (Wednesday)
- Moon Mars Villages for Science, Technology, Innovation, Cooperation, Security and Inspiration (Wednesday)
- From Up There to Down Here – Big Data Driving Sustainable Development and Economic Growth on Earth (Thursday)
- Late Breaking News (Friday)

Highlight Lectures

- The Great Barrier Reef – Assuring Its Health from Space
- Flight by Light with Bill Nye – LightSail & Innovations in Solar Sailing
- Next Generation On-Orbit Satellite Servicing and Refuelling Programs

Global Networking Forum

A focal point in the most recent congresses, providing opportunities for increased visibility for IAF members attracting a wide audience and featuring a varied program including:

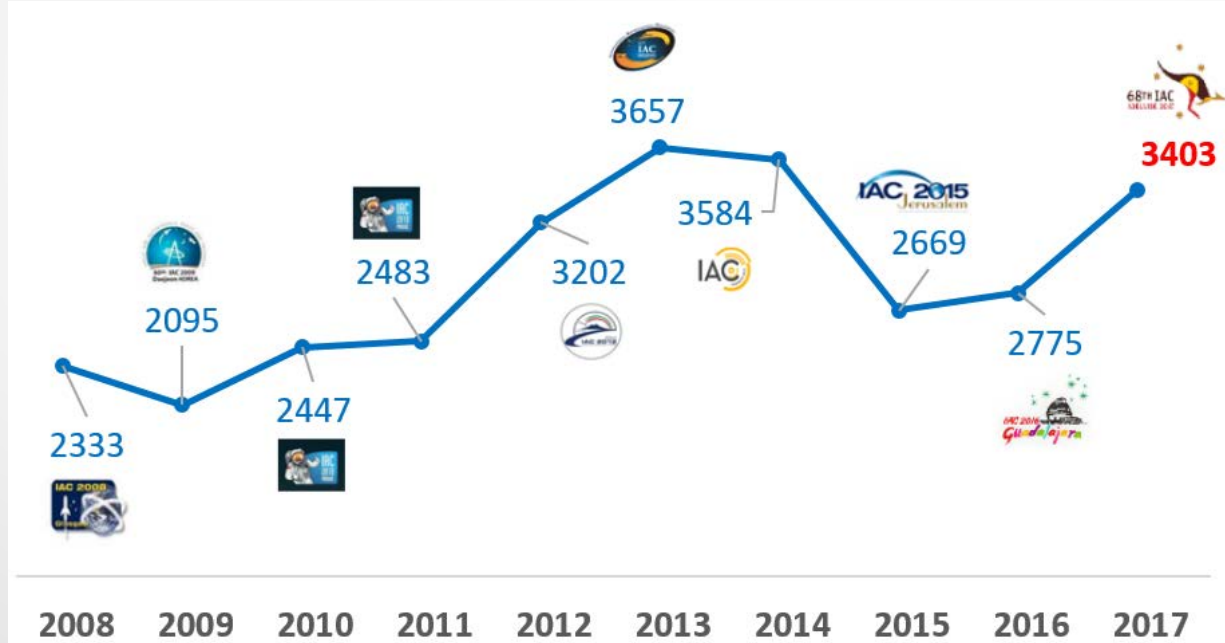

- round-tables discussions
- networking sessions and
- social events.

Technical Sessions

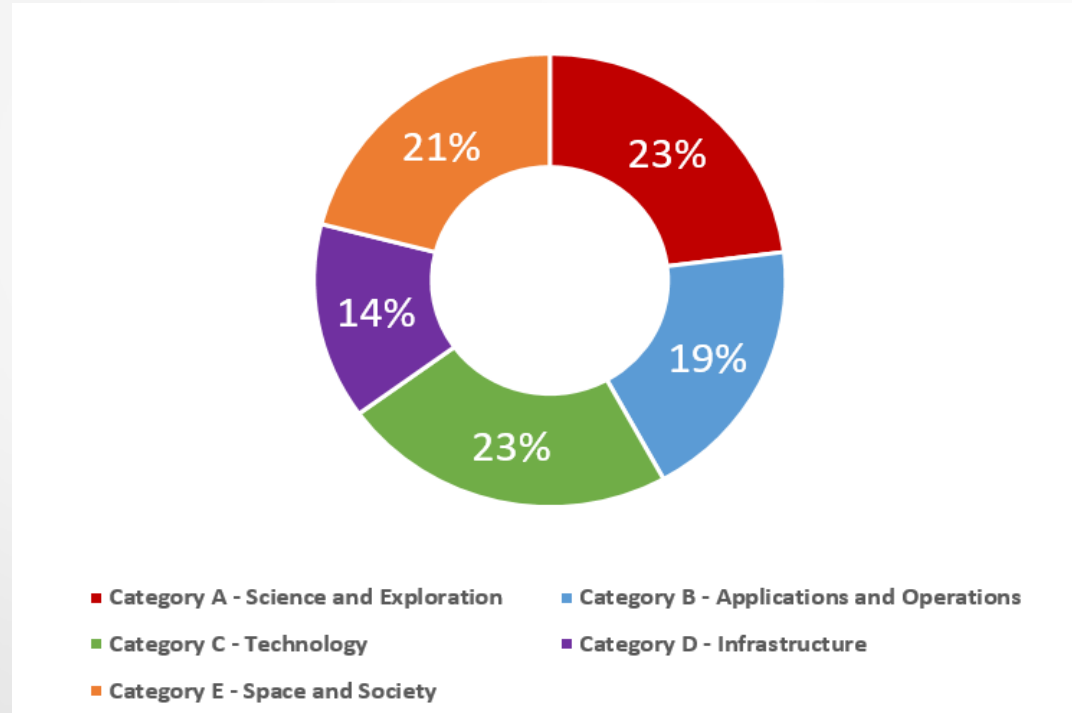

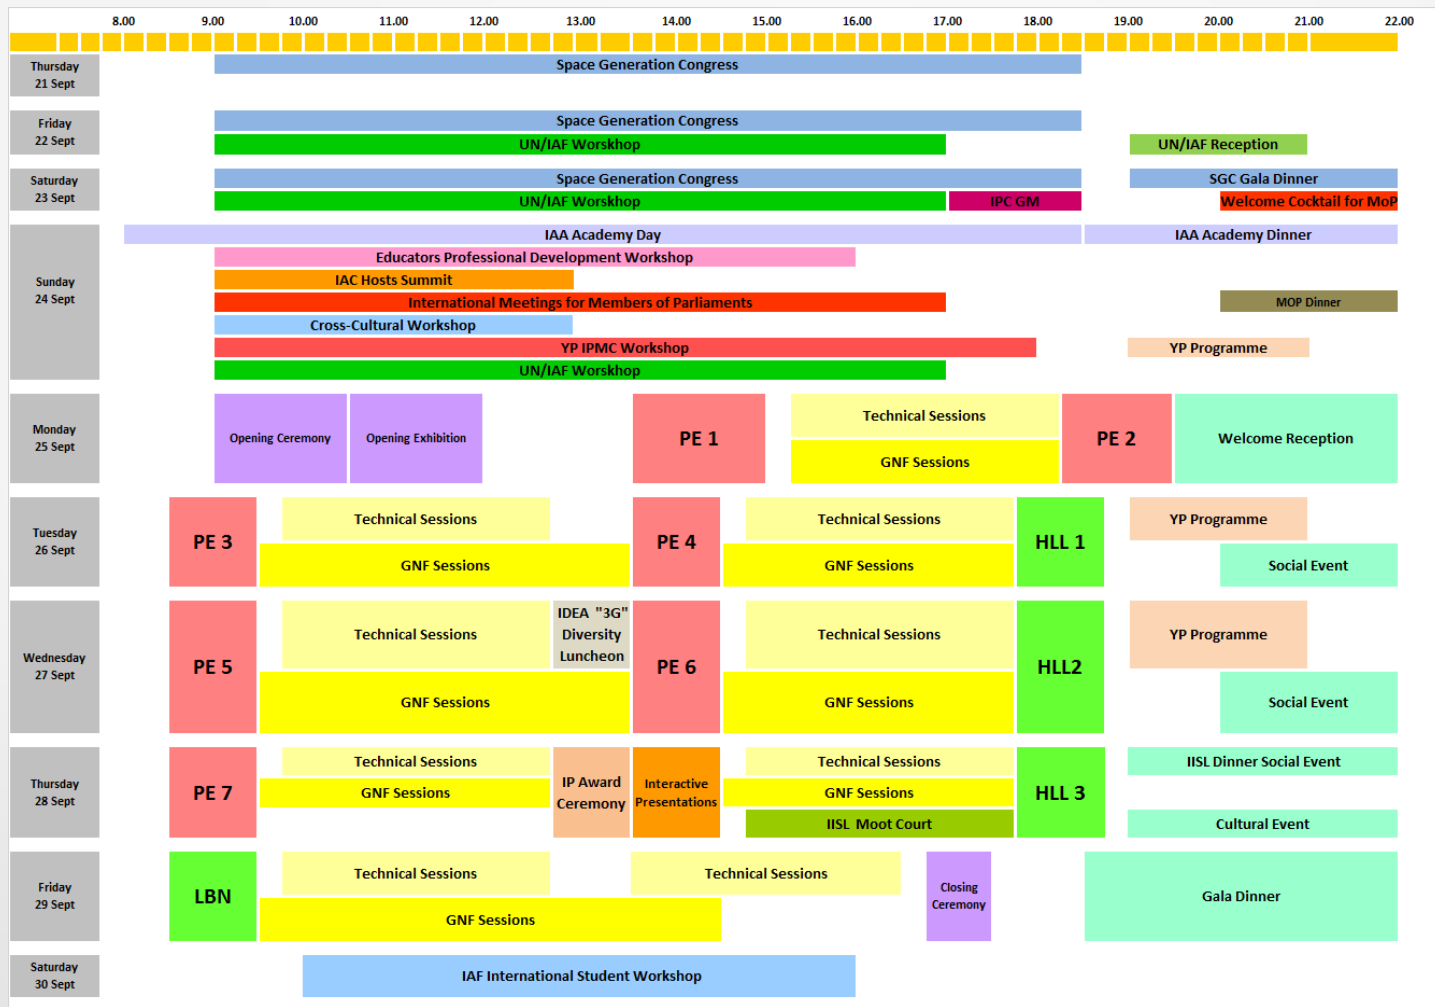

178 separate sessions in the course of the week covering every conceivable aspect of space activity

Abstract Submissions

Abstracts by category

Ancillary events

- Annual conference of the Space Generation Advisory Council for young space professionals at the University of Adelaide, to include a reception at Government House
- UN/IAF Workshop, co-sponsored by the Commonwealth Government– 150 delegates
- Annual meeting and dinner of the International Academy of Astronautics (IAA)
- A meeting of international Parliamentarians hosted by the Parliament of South Australia
- The Annual Meeting, Dinner and Moot competition finals of the International Institute for Space Law – three judges of the International Court of Justice (ICJ) will be in Adelaide to judge the Manfred Lachs Moot.
- STEM and teacher professional development activities both within and beyond the confines of the Congress

Community Engagement

- A Woomera retrospective at the State Library of South Australia
- Three exhibitions at the South Australian Museum (SAM)
 - Hubble Space Telescope imagery
 - Indigenous perspectives of the heavens through the eyes of aboriginal Australian and southern African peoples – lent by the Square Kilometre Array (SKA) consortium
 - From the SA to Space –the career of Andy Thomas
- Site visits and excursions – to Woomera, local observatories and relevant industries

Sponsors and Exhibitors

See <http://www.iac2017.org/sponsors-and-exhibitors>

Registration

Online at <http://www.iac2017.org/>

Early bird rates before 30 June

15% discount on full registration fee for current SIAA members

See you in Adelaide

